School Holiday Clinics

Term Three- 2009

The River Plate Football Academy Australia invites all players between the ages of 7 To13 years old to attend our third school holiday Clinic for 2009.

This clinic will be an opportunity experience the River Plate method of training which includes:

- Tight control of the ball / first touch.
- Playing with and without the ball
- Playing creative and entertaining football
- Training ethics
- The importance of concentration and selective attention to improve performance
- Developing good post training habits.
- Video watching of young players of CA River Plate playing in ARGENTINA (Dandenong clinic only).

We will also explore the different pathways to professional football and scholarships offered by our Club in South America and the Academy in Australia and have lots of fun!!
